

GALAX SEAL

The Galax Seal is a high-quality, variable-length security seal designed for tamper-evident protection across diverse industries. Made with a durable polypropylene body and a stainless steel locking mechanism, it offers reliable performance in both indoor and outdoor environments.

Its smooth, flexible strap allows easy application on irregular surfaces, while the corrosion-resistant lock ensures secure fastening. Ideal for transport, logistics, and industrial use, the Galax Seal supports custom markings and barcodes for traceability and enhanced security.
